JPT SCARE BAND - JEFF LITTRELL

For J. Antunes

The JPT Scare Band is one of those lendárias bands who had been part of fabulosos years 70, but that only the fans most curious of the style know.

Despite she is so shining how much Cream, Blue Cheer, Sabbath, Hendrix, Led and others, the band never had an official launching while she was in the active. The JPT remained in underground up to 1992, when the Monster Records launched part of the sensational old material of the band. It is really a fantastic and curious history. Before conferring our interview with the band (Jeff and Paul) it gives one looked at in the interesting biography of them so that it can still more understand on what we talk.

N.E.: Some correlated questions had been grouped, therefore, it does not find odd a questioning with three or four questions in the sequence. Jeff answered to all the questions. Paul participated of some and its name is marked in the respective reply.

Hey Jeff, Paul

First, we want to be thankful for its time and the attention that you had with us. Really, thanks a lot!
