Paint It Black - Various. CD, £12.00
(Label: EMI, Cat.No: 367 2502)

Fascinating twenty track compilation CD of Rolling Stones covers by some of the greatest recording artists ever known. Recorded around the time of the originals, this CD features "Jumpin' Jack Flash" by Aretha Franklin, a great "Let's Spend The Night Together" by David Bowie, "Honky Tonk Women" by Ike & Tina & Turner and a surprising "Sympathy For The Devil" by Bryan Ferry. Also includes The Ramones, Linda Ronstadt, Otis Redding and Rod Stewart.

Blues For Dotsie - Various. CD, £12.00
(Label: Ace, Cat.No: CDCHD 1115)

Everything from Jump to Down Home to Boogie Woogie babes on this collection of West Coast Blues cut for and by Dootsie Williams. Includes rare sides from Joe Turner (with Dootsie Williams & Rhythm Kings) and Bobby Nunn (pre-Coasters) in this collection of hard-to-find records. In fact, virtually everything on the Blue label is so rare it hurts! None of these sides have been re-issued on CD or LP before and with 30 tracks it's positively packed to the gills. Also includes a fascinating and highly-informative booklet, with notes by Jim Dawson, drawn from his in-depth interviews with Dootsie.

The Trip Created By Jarvis Cocker - Various. CD, £14.99
(Label: UMC, Cat.No: 9832862)

An amazing journey through power pop, expansive soundtracks, blues, alternative cover versions, junk shop breaks and genuinely unexpected musical nuggets.

Gaz's Rockin' Blues - Various. CD, £11.50
(Label: Ace, Cat.No: CDCHD 1071)

A compilation of the very best tunes spun at the legendary London nightspot owned and managed by John Mayall's eldest son Gaz Mayall, who is probably (after his father) the UK's leading authority on blues as we know it. The club opened in 1980 and still offers the best in rock and blues into the 21st century- thus, the first 14 tracks on this disc comprise the club's first compilation album from 1981, and

Jamnation - Various. CD, £17.00

(Label: , Cat.No: MVT 20051)

Compilation of all contemporary Texas heavy blues/psych/space rock giants including "King Rat" by JPT Scare Band, Gas Giant, "Conga Jam", Josefus "Dead Man", ILDHU "Poetry Rock Freakout", JPT Scare Band, "Time To Cry" and Eternal

Elysium "Green Song". Dan McGuire add spoken word to this heavy psychedelic music making this quite a unique release as the music serves as a background score for a spoken word soundtrack reminiscent of beat generation poets. This is a limited edition and won't be around long. Housed in a digi pack.

Rolling Stones - Satisfaction- Covers & Cookies Of The Rolling Stones (Variou. Dble CD, £12.00

(Label: Harmless, Cat.No: HURTC062)

Double CD set of unusual Stones covers, leaning toward the soul and funk genre and featuring a variety of artists one wouldn't necessarily associate with the Stones, but who all share some musical kinship with them (The Meters, Herbie Mann, Ruth Copeland, PP Arnold, Rotary Connection, The Staple Singers and even Ananda Shankar. There's also the by-now-legendary (and oft compiled, but here it is again) version of "Gimme Shelter" laid down by Merry Clayton, who sang on the original, and Muddy Waters running through "Let's Spend The Night Together" - the influence coming full circle. CD2 is a "4 Hero Mix"- a continuous dance mix with a Strolling Bones theme. Should get those Hoxton parties going nicely. . . .

What's Shakin' - Various. CD, £10.00

(Label: Collectors Choice, Cat.No: CCM0622)

CD re-issue of this legendary 1966 rarities compilation, and it boasted a couple of big-name artists, the Lovin Spoonful and Eric Clapton, who were not known for their association with the label. The Lovin Spoonful tracks stem from the bands almost having signed with the label; Jac Holzman states in the notes that it was John Sebastian's way of making amends, and these four tracks-'Good Time Music' 'Almost Grown' 'Don't Bank on It Baby', and 'Searchin'-were never recorded by the band, not even in different versions. The Clapton tracks, meanwhile, feature him with Powerhouse, a supergroup composed of Jack Bruce, Stevie Winwood and Manfred Mann lead singer Paul Jones; produced by Joe Boyd, the tracks are 'I Want to Know; Crossroads', and 'Steppin Out'. Five Paul Butterfield Blues Band tracks appear here from their ill-fated debut recording session for Elektra: 'Lovin Cup; Good Morning Little Schoolgirl; Spoonful', and two that appear nowhere else, 'Off the Wall' and 'One More Mile'. Tom Rush's 'I'm in Love Again' is an outtake from his 1966 LP 'Take a Little Walk with Me', and Al Kooper's 'I Cant Keep from Crying Sometimes' is something of a rehearsal for the later, fuller Blues Project version.
